

Week of Devotionals for Rosh Hashanah

Sunday, September 10

---

Read Psalm 15 three times. Answer the following questions:

1. What does this Psalm mean?
2. What do I need to change or deal with?
3. What is God saying to me?

Monday, September 11

Read Psalm 100. Do the following:

- Spend at least a half/hour with God, during which you worship, pray, and try to listen to God's voice.
- Suggestion: Listen to Paul Wilbur "Jerusalem Arise" on YouTube, or any other worship music that touches your heart.

Tuesday, September 12

Read Psalm 24 three times. Answer the following questions:

1. What is God saying to me?
2. What do I need to change to be able to go into God's presence?
3. How can I worship the King of Glory?

Wednesday, September 13

Read Mark 11:22-26. Pray for the following:

- Pray for your family, friends, and coworkers.
- Ask God to show you if there is any un-forgiveness in your heart toward anyone.
- Ask God to bring reconciliation and healing.

Thursday, September 14

Read Psalm 130 at a normal pace, and then again, prayerfully and slowly, read Psalm 130 out loud. Take some time to think about this psalm.

- Let the words move you and let God touch your heart.
- Take some time to turn this Psalm into a prayer and then pray it with feeling and conviction!

Friday, September 15

Come Celebrate Rosh Hashanah also known as the Feasts of Trumpets.

- We will hear the sound of repentance and we will open up our hearts to a Holy God and He will meet us!
- This impactful service will be held from 6-8pm.
- You don't want to miss this holy celebration!

If you can't come in-person, please join us online at: victoryaog.org/live

Saturday, September 16th

Read Revelation 21:1-4. Pray through the following:

- Thank God for salvation and that your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life!
- Thank God that you are going to heaven!
- Give thanks for the other believers in your life.
- Pray for those who you are not sure about their salvation.
- Ask God how you can share His love with them.
